

CLCON NO. 315 OF 2001

Hon. Irshad Hussain, J.

Sri. S.K.Mandal, Advocate holding brief on behalf of the petitioner and Sri K.P.Upadhyaya, learned standing counsel are present.

Sri S.K.Mandal states that notice may be issued to the petitioner.

Perused the counter affidavit. The case of the petitioner had been considered and since he had not been found eligible for the work the decision had been taken and, therefore, there being prima facie no contempt of the order of court, it will be futile to issue notice to the petitioner. Considering this, the petition is dismissed and the notice is discharged.

(Irshad Hussain, J.)

13.06.2003./B

(P.C. Verma, A.C.J.)

Dt. 18.6.2003

A